

2011 April Guess that Plant:

Pixie Moss, Pyxidantha barbulata

Pixie moss is a tiny prostrate shrub with awn-shaped leaf characteristics of a moss. This plant is found where Coast Plain Outer vegetation exists yet is most common in the central Pine Barrens of Ocean, Burlington and Atlantic Counties. This small plant is found in the Pine Plains, Pitch Pine Lowlands and damp roads sides with sufficient light.